ABOUT ME

Hi! My name is Satish Yadav. focused on crafting great web experiences. Coding has been my passion since the day I started working with computers but I found myself inclined towards web development and programming since 2020. I enjoy creating beautifully designed, intuitive and functional websites.

PROJECT

Title :- Gessing a number between 1 to 100 (with user input).

Description :- This is a mini.java project. In which the user choose any number between 1 to 100. Then this program tells the user that the he has chosen is correct or wrong.
And it will keep taking input from the user till the chooses the correct number or he exits the program.
